Dear Mr Secretary Master,

You may remember that I spoke to you some days back about two copies of the Gazette of India being received in your Office, of which one ~~of those~~ belonged to us.
As our copy has to be sent in circulation to the Secretary,
P.W.D, that Officer has written complaining that we do not send the copies regularly to him.

Will you therefore kindly direct that all the back numbers from March last may be kindly sent to me at once,

My dear Sir,

Further search was made for the numbers not sent yesterday. The available ones are herewith sent.

Some of the rest may probably be on the Swain's Cable which will be searched & sent to you in a week or so. Kindly send a reminder some time next week.

Yours truly
B Charaidenkar

Dear Mr. Spencer Smith

The issues of the India Gazettes you were pleased to send yesterday, are most of them incomplete, Can you kindly permit the Bearer to have a search, and pick up such portions as are missing, and oblige.

Yours sincerly

P. Pringle

When Chief Engineer in his No. 3260 dy 7th June last, complained of the non receipt of Gazettes from our Office, my note on the same docket, will shew, that no India Gazettes were being recd: in the English General Records.

Dy: Secy: thereupon wrote a D.O. to the Private Secy: to the Dewan on the 17th July last, on the subject.

On Dy: Secy's D.O. (now put up) the Private Secy: replied that arrangements to deliver a copy in the Dewan's Office in future will be made at once.

Up to date, the promised copy is not forthcoming, hence a second complaint from the Chief Engineer.

TO THE DEWAN OF MYSORE

for Orders.

I write to inquire whether you have any objection to my asking the Madras Govt. through the Resident, to discontinue the issue to my office, in future, of the "Fort St. George Gazette", which is regularly supplied with Supplements &c connected therewith free of charge. The General Secretariat tells me his copy of the "Gazette of India", and if the same arrangement be adopted as regards the "Fort St. George Gazette", this will be sufficient for all practical purposes. A separate copy of the latter Gazette for this office is not now required, & its receipt burdens my records, while its discontinuance will save the Madras Govt. the unnecessary expense of postage &c.

SUBJECT.

Requesting that the Dewan's Nos copies of Govt of India & Govt St George Gazette may be sent regularly to the Chief Engineer.

Gazette is customarily sent, as regards the India Gazette, I wrote to Mr Srinivasa Murti on the subject, but can get no reply. In fact we have recd: no India Gazette since March last. RB. 16/7/02.

I had a DO addressed to the Private Secretary to the Dewan - Please find it on. HH 17/7/02
